General Information & Policies

DEPOSITS

A non-refundable deposit, credit card and signed contract are required to confirm your function on a definite basis. Total estimated bill will be due 72 hours prior to the function date by cash, certified check or credit card. A credit card must be on file to cover any balance at the conclusion of the function; any overpayment will be refunded within three weeks.

GUARANTEES

A guaranteed number of attendees is required 72 hours prior to all food functions, and is not subject to reduction. In the event that we do not receive your final count, the minimum guarantee listed on the contract will be used.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE

It is the policy of the Capital Club of Columbus that all food and beverage must be purchased through our facility in compliance with the State of Ohio liquor laws and the Ohio Board of Health requirements. We are unable to allow groups or individuals to bring food and beverage into any public space, with exception of the wedding cake (must be licensed baker) and any cultural traditions we are unable to provide with our own kitchen. Additionally, we are unable to allow any non-consumed food and/or beverage item(s) to be taken from the facility. The enclosed menu prices are subject to applicable 23% gratuity and 7.5% food and beverage tax. Due to the seasonality of several items on our Banquet Menus, the Hotel reserves the right to substitute items or increase menu prices as needed to cover our costs. The event host will select one plated entrée to be served to all guests.

BANQUET ROOMS

Function rooms are assigned according to anticipated guarantee number of guests at the time the event is contracted. Banquet rooms will be set according to banquet event order specifications. Significant changes in the room setup with-in 24 hours of the event may result in additional labor charges. The Club reserves the right to charge a service fee for extraordinary room setup requirements or clean up. Receptions are based on a 5 hour rental time. The Club adheres to strict Fire Code guidelines. Exits may not be blocked and room diagrams must be approved.

BANQUET BARS

The Club requires proper identification of any person of questionable age and will refuse alcohol service if the person is under age or unable to present proper identification. The Club reserves the right to refuse service to any person who in the Bartender or Manager's judgment appears to be intoxicated. A bartender fee will be charged for all Bars.

DECORATIONS

All decorations and signage must have prior approval by your Catering Manager. The Club does not allow anything to be affixed to any walls, floors, ceilings, or room furnishings with nails, tape, staples or other substances. The host assumes responsibility and will be billed for any and all damages to or loss of property from the function room or other areas of the Hotel caused by the guests, invitees, independent contractors or any others affiliated with the sponsored function. No fireworks, fire hazards, glitter, rice, birdseed, or confetti are allowed on the Hotel premises at any time.

AUDIO VISUAL

The Capital Club of Columbus is proud to have AcuProAV as our full service, in house audio visual company. AcuProAV can handle all your audio visual, staging, computer and lighting needs. Should you decide to bring in an outside.

staging/audio visual company certain fees and policies will apply.
